

TALKS ON EDUCATION.

THE SUBJECT CONSIDERED AT THE CHAUTAUQUA WOMAN'S CLUB.

MR. BOLIN'S LECTURE ON "MENTAL GROWTH THROUGH PHYSICAL EDUCATION"—PRESS CLUB RECEPTIONS.

[BY TELEGRAM TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Chautauqua, N. Y., July 24.—Some practical aspects of education were considered at the Woman's Club this morning. The practice of putting infants on exhibition, the dissipation and exhaustion of society, and necessary preparation for college were discussed by the president, Mrs. Emily Huntington Miller. At the girls' "outlook" a paper on "The Ideal Home" was read by the president, Miss Allene Skinner; Miss Pearl Berens described an ideal guesroom, and Miss Martha McCarthy a home grammarian. At the session of the boys' Congress today, Bill No. 6, providing for a National quarantine in conjunction with the United States mail service system, was also lost, after an animated discussion. A large number of visitors were present. Leon Vincent lectured on "Shakespeare's Protagonists."

"Mental Growth Through Physical Education" was the title of an interesting lecture this morning by Jacob Bolin, director of Swedish gymnastics in the Chautauqua School of Physical Education. It was shown that through physical education the perceptions of the five special senses are made more true and a sixth, the muscular sense, can be brought to full development. Mr. Bolin urged systematic gymnastic work as a direct agency for mental training in public schools and in the home.

With the thermometer at 62 degrees yesterday and to-day, great fires have been discontinued. The press and its correspondents representing events at the Montreal convention were at the Chautauqua Christian Endeavor Convocation by the Rev. C. G. Sterling in the Presbyterian house. The German Club, under the direction of Professor Cohn, met in the Hall of the Convocation for social purposes. A bright light water-melon party on the handball ground is being enjoyed by the gymnasium students this evening.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CHAUTAUQUA.
AN UNUSUALLY LARGE ATTENDANCE AT ALL THE LECTURES AND CLASSES.

MOUNT GRETA, Penn., July 24 (Special).—To-day opened the closing week of the Chautauqua. The cottages have uniformly remained throughout the season and a great many have signified their intention of remaining for the post-Chautauqua during the month of August. At the public exercises this morning and afternoon the attendance was usually large. This morning the choral classes under the leadership of Professor W. H. Baltzell, of Reading, gave a public concert consisting of glees from the representative English composers and illustrating the work of the classes during the past season. This was to close the course in vocal music, but at a request of a majority of the students Professor Baltzell has decided to continue his instructions. The students will immediately go into practice for another public concert on Saturday.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Dr. Willis J. Beecher, Dean of the Department of Sacred Literature, gave a lecture on the "Doctrine of Justification by Faith" as related by the Apostle Paul in First Galatians. Dr. Frederick Starr gave the seventh of his interesting talks on the World's Fair at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Before the Chautauqua Extension Society at 4 o'clock this afternoon Dr. J. Max Dohr delivered the third of his series of lectures on English literature, and took up Milton and his place in English literature. A great deal of the speaker's time was devoted to a lengthy analysis of "Paradise Lost." Miss Lippincott, of Froelich Normal Institute, Washington, D. C., has drilled all day in her class in kindergarten work preparatory to the public exhibition to be given to-morrow. The girls, the data, and the Misses Lehman, with whom their classes have made a public exhibition of art needlework that is excellent and unique. Professor Brickenreider, returning to-day after a short absence, spent during the week on the art circuit, delivering five lectures. His talk this morning was a review of his previous lectures on sculpture. This evening a large audience greeted Dr. Starr on his third lecture in the series, "Some First Steps in Human Progress."

LECTURES TO CATHOLIC STUDENTS.
Plattsburgh, N. Y., July 24 (Special).—The second week began to-day with a lecture by the Rev. Brother Azarias. Before the lecture the Rev. Thomas P. Joint, pastor of St. Mary's Church, New-London, Conn., made an address congratulating the members present on the continued prosperity of the summer school. He then introduced Brother Azarias, who began his course of lectures on "Educational Ethics." At 11 o'clock Richard Malcolm Johnston, of Baltimore, lectured upon "Sir Thomas More." This afternoon an excursion was made by steamer to the shrine of St. Anne at Isle La Motte on Lake Champlain. At this spot in 1666 the French Captain La Motte erected a fort and for the first time mass was celebrated in the newly discovered country. This evening the Rev. A. P. Doyle, one of the Faustini Fathers of New-York, gave a lecture entitled "Catholic Educational Institutions."

J. THOMAS SCHLARF OBJECTED.

A STRENUOUS EFFORT TO FIND SOMETHING WRONG IN CUSTOM HOUSE PROCEDURE.
An extremely ingenious plan for casting discredit upon the management of the Custom House at this port has been adopted recently by the authorities of the Treasury Department, and of course men were secured who were willing to go into it. These men were found among the special agents. The Treasury Department has been working assiduously of late to obtain clews upon which the special agents and the members of the fraud-rail quartet might secure information which could be used against Collector Hendricks. To this end all of the energies of the Treasury Department and the special agents have been exerted since the first week of last March. Nothing of consequence could be found, so the Treasury Department sent a certain J. Thomas Schlarf to this port, desiring him as a "special Chinese Inspector" to take charge of all questionable cases of Chinese coming to this country and demanding admission. Mr. Schlarf went to work immediately to attract the attention of the Treasury Department, and he succeeded so admirably that under any other administration than the present one his resignation would be asked for immediately. He not only insulted the Collector of the Port, but sent to the Secretary of the Treasury a letter which spoke in the most scurrilous terms of the methods of one of the most conscientious clerks in the Custom House.

The whole thing came about through the admission of a Chinaman named Lee Yet, who left this city last October for a trip home. His papers were all right. The Custom House authorities passed him. J. Thomas Schlarf objected, however, and was unable to find a case against the Custom House men, and thought this was an excellent opportunity to find fault. He sent a letter to the Treasury Department declaring that the Custom House authorities had acted as though they were the attorneys' attorneys. Collector Hendricks ordered an investigation of the case, which will be started at once.

FUNERAL OF JULIUS CATLIN.

The Rev. Dr. Theodore Sedgwick of St. George's Church, Rutherford Place and Sixteenth-st., assisted by Dr. Wilson, yesterday officiated at the funeral of Julius Catlin, the well-known club man and drygoods merchant. The church was filled with the friends and relatives of the dead man. Many of the famous class of '33, Yale College, of which Mr. Catlin was a member, were present. Among the prominent people who attended the services were Thomas C. Platt, Sherman W. Knevels, Henry C. Brewster, Professor Charlton F. Lewis, the Rev. Dr. Twining, and C. N. Bliss. The pall-bearers were Edward Van Volkenburgh, Dr. E. Lamberti, D. N. Van Ingen, Thomas Moyer, Jr., Lowell Lincoln, Sherman W. Knevels and A. H. Welch. The casket was covered with flowers. The body was taken at 12 o'clock to Morristown, N. J., for burial.

CITY OFFICIALS LOOK FOR NEW QUARTERS.
It is probable that the old brown-stone General Sessions building at the northeast corner of City Hall Park, now occupied by the District-Attorney and the Criminal Courts, will be used by the Mayor and Aldermen as a City Hall when the tearing down of the City Hall begins. The new Criminal Courts Building, it is expected, will be ready for use next January. This will permit the vacating of the old brown-stone Court House, as the District-Attorney and the General Sessions will remove to the new structure. Since it was decided to place the new Municipal Building on the site of the City Hall the Mayor has been anxious about his official chambers.

"I think I am a very foolish man," he said recently, "of my term so as to provide magnificent offices for future Mayors. The new Municipal Building will not be begun probably until spring. The new Criminal Court Building can be occupied several months before the trial. The best thing we can do as matters stand is to utilize the General Sessions Building for a temporary City Hall."

SHE PURSUED HIM WITH AN UMBRELLA.

HENRY MAILLARD CHARGES MRS. BELL, SAID TO BE HIS COMMON-LAW WIFE, WITH DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

The troubles of Henry Maillard, the millionaire chocolate manufacturer, who has an establishment in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and Josephine Bell, who says she is his common law wife, reached a climax yesterday when Mrs. Bell found herself a prisoner in the Jefferson Market Police Court, charged by Mr. Maillard with disorderly conduct. Mrs. Bell, who gave her address as No. 300 West Seventy-first, sued Mr. Maillard some time ago for abandonment. It is understood that the case was settled out of court. Mr. Maillard did not appear in court yesterday, but was represented by his lawyer, Kaufmann.

The warrant was issued for Mrs. Bell on July 21 in the affidavit of Mr. Maillard, who said that on July 21, at Sixth- and Twenty-fourth-st., she accosted him and threatened to assault him with an umbrella. She used vile language to him, he said. Late she appeared at his residence, No. 112 West Twenty-fourth-st., and tried to force an entrance, and threatened to kill him. Then, he declares, she visited his factory, at No. 114 West Twenty-fifth-st., and again threatened to hurt him with her umbrella. Mr. Maillard concluded his affidavit by saying that her persecution prevented him from attending to his business, and he said that she had been a bad influence on his sons, with according to law, Mr. Maillard's son, Mrs. Bell was paroled in the custody of her counsel for examination next Monday, at 10:30 a.m. The assault by Mrs. Bell is the second time she has been arrested by her lawyer, a Miss Celeste Mullins, a dressmaker of Madison-avenue, to whom she was unwilling that Mr. Maillard should speak.

New Publications.

SCRIBNER'S FICTION NUMBER

READY TO-DAY AT 11 O'CLOCK, CONTAINS

SIX SHORT STORIES

and instalments of two serials. The authors are

THOMAS BAILEY ALDRICH,
"Her Dying Words." Illustrated.

H. C. BUNNELL,
"Tiemann's to Tubby-Hook." Illustrated.

SARAH ORNE JEWETT,
"The Flight of Betty Lane." Illustrated.

HOWARD PYLE,
"Beneath the Mask." Illustrated.

W. H. SHIELTON,
"The Wedding Journey of Mrs. Zaintree."

GRACE ELLERY CHANNING,
"The House on the Hill-Top." Illustrated.

ROBERT GRANT,
"The Opinions of a Philosopher." Illustrated.

HAROLD FREDERIC,
"The Copperhead."

In addition to the fiction the number contains:

THE NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENT. By Julian Ralph. Illustrated by W. T. Smiley.

TYPES AND PEOPLE AT THE FAIR. By J. A. Mitchell. Illustrated by Mr. Mitchell and Charles Howard Johnson.

POEMS AND POINT OF VIEW.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, NEW-YORK.

Law Schools.

METROPOLIS LAW SCHOOL.

For terms beginning in the evening sessions.

ALICE C. THOM, L. D. Dean. For catalogues address Prof. CLARENCE D. ASHLEY, 207 Broadway.

Instruction.

FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN—CITY.

ATLEN SCHOOL, 316 West 86th-st., New-York.

Preparation for College and University.

Harold C. Hayes, Principal.

UNIVERSITY CHAMBER SCHOOL, 62 West 67th-st., Park Collegiate and University Grammar School combined. Prepares for Harvard, Yale and other leading institutions. Four boarding pupils received.

EMERSON PHILLIPS, Principal.

BORKELING, stenography, typewriting, &c., thoroughly taught; day or evening; situations furnished. C. C. GAINES, 81 East 125th-st.

For Young Ladies—COUNTRY.

BOXWOOD, Boarding and Day School for Girls. At Old Lyme, Connecticut, will reopen September 20th, 1893.

Mrs. R. S. GRISWOLD.

BYNNAH COLLEGE, GRYN MAWR, Penn., 10 miles from Philadelphia. A College for Women. Program, stating the graduate and undergraduate courses for the academic year, will be sent on application.

CATHARINE HALL, Brooklyn, N. Y. Choice of three courses for graduation; special studies may be taken or college preparation course; respects September 27. Address the Superior, 292 Washington-st.

HARVARD SCHOOL, FIFTH-AVE., Reopens Sept. 29th, 1893.

Preparation for Yale, Princeton and Columbia.

UNIVERSITY CHAMBER SCHOOL, 62 West 67th-st., Park Collegiate and University Grammar School combined. Prepares for Harvard, Yale and other leading institutions. Four boarding pupils received.

EMERSON PHILLIPS, Principal.

BORKELING, stenography, typewriting, &c., thoroughly taught; day or evening; situations furnished. C. C. GAINES, 81 East 125th-st.

For Young Ladies—COUNTRY.

BOXWOOD, Boarding and Day School for Girls. At Old Lyme, Connecticut, will reopen September 20th, 1893.

Mrs. R. S. GRISWOLD.

CHILDWOLD PARK SCHOOL, NEW YORK.

For terms beginning in the evening sessions.

ALICE C. THOM, L. D. Dean. For catalogues address Prof. CLARENCE D. ASHLEY, 207 Broadway.

Instruction.

FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN—CITY.

ATLEN SCHOOL, 316 West 86th-st., New-York.

Preparation for College and University.

Harold C. Hayes, Principal.

UNIVERSITY CHAMBER SCHOOL, 62 West 67th-st., Park Collegiate and University Grammar School combined. Prepares for Harvard, Yale and other leading institutions. Four boarding pupils received.

EMERSON PHILLIPS, Principal.

BORKELING, stenography, typewriting, &c., thoroughly taught; day or evening; situations furnished. C. C. GAINES, 81 East 125th-st.

For Young Ladies—COUNTRY.

BOXWOOD, Boarding and Day School for Girls. At Old Lyme, Connecticut, will reopen September 20th, 1893.

Mrs. R. S. GRISWOLD.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, NEW-YORK.

For terms beginning in the evening sessions.

ALICE C. THOM, L. D. Dean. For catalogues address Prof. CLARENCE D. ASHLEY, 207 Broadway.

Instruction.

FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN—CITY.

ATLEN SCHOOL, 316 West 86th-st., New-York.

Preparation for College and University.

Harold C. Hayes, Principal.

UNIVERSITY CHAMBER SCHOOL, 62 West 67th-st., Park Collegiate and University Grammar School combined. Prepares for Harvard, Yale and other leading institutions. Four boarding pupils received.

EMERSON PHILLIPS, Principal.

BORKELING, stenography, typewriting, &c., thoroughly taught; day or evening; situations furnished. C. C. GAINES, 81 East 125th-st.

For Young Ladies—COUNTRY.

BOXWOOD, Boarding and Day School for Girls. At Old Lyme, Connecticut, will reopen September 20th, 1893.

Mrs. R. S. GRISWOLD.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, NEW-YORK.

For terms beginning in the evening sessions.

ALICE C. THOM, L. D. Dean. For catalogues address Prof. CLARENCE D. ASHLEY, 207 Broadway.

Instruction.

FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN—CITY.

ATLEN SCHOOL, 316 West 86th-st., New-York.

Preparation for College and University.

Harold C. Hayes, Principal.

UNIVERSITY CHAMBER SCHOOL, 62 West 67th-st., Park Collegiate and University Grammar School combined. Prepares for Harvard, Yale and other leading institutions. Four boarding pupils received.

EMERSON PHILLIPS, Principal.

BORKELING, stenography, typewriting, &c., thoroughly taught; day or evening; situations furnished. C. C. GAINES, 81 East 125th-st.

For Young Ladies—COUNTRY.

BOXWOOD, Boarding and Day School, New-Brunswick, New-Jersey.

For terms beginning in the evening sessions.

ALICE C. THOM, L. D. Dean. For catalogues address Prof. CLARENCE D. ASHLEY, 207 Broadway.

Instruction.

FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN—CITY.